In just 3 days, my husband came back to us and show me and my kids much love and apologize for all the pain he have bring to the family. My action seems to me free; but asking myself whether I could raise my arm in every direction, I see that I raised it in the direction in which there was least obstruction to that action either from things around me or from the construction of my own body. I read the second one recently which stands alone very well but I thought it would make sense to read the first .
