If they were absent, the practice - if it could be called a practice - would stagnate from loss of direction or motivation. The community leadership loses its grip on power as the visitors manipulate the tire ... He also saw that his own suffering turned him toward God and that the nearness of God in his affliction was good. That said, the report acknowledges correctly that there was a lack of consistency in the IMF's advice on this matter during the post-Asian crisis period. First, they have wrongly generalized the category of reification.
