Having said Thing: Idol of Millions (The Thing (2005-2006)) this it is possible to formulate a new hypothesis to justify the presence in the CODEX AMIATINUS the different tabula capitulorum for Genesis in regards to the rest of the Pentateuch: while carrying out the three pandects Bede would have come to realize the inadequacy of the existing chapter headings and came to provide new ones, beginning with the first five books of the Bible, but at the moment in which these tabulae capitulorum were ready the copyist of the Pentateuch the alpha hand would have already written the chapter headings to Genesis and perhaps all of the book: to change the chapter headings with Bede's new breves would have meant rewriting the whole book remember that the CODEX AMIATINUS presents in rubrics not only the Roman numbers which subdivide the chapters but also the first word of the text and perhaps it was considered best left so.
