Because you always remain close to my heart and far from my eyes. This guide is meant to provide a framework and some simple suggestions for studying for Step 1. Re-discover the fullness of the Mass today. For that we must go either to pre-Reformation days, or to the poetry of those who, like George Herbert and the poetic kin of his time, clung to the Roman Catholic creed after the modification of belief and ritual in the Anglican Church; or to the poets in our own time trained in the Roman Catholic faith, and to that extent, and on that ground, debarred from wide popularity among a Protestant people.
